PRICE THREE CENTS.

DOZEN WOMEN TRIED.

Are Charged With Poisoning Their Husbands.

AFTER INSURANCE MONEY.

Some of the Prisoners Are Accused of Committing Four or Five Murders—Many Witnesses Summoned to Testify.

Budapest, March 17.—The trial of 12 women and two men was commenced at Hold Mezo-Vasvarthy, at Lake Hodas. The prisoners are charged with poisoning their husbands or others of their relatives in order to obtain insurance money.

Some of the prisoners are accused of four or five murders. The chief prisoner is a midwife, named Marie Jager, who is charged with supplying the poison with which the murderers were committed. About 200 witnesses have been called.

HANNA'S AGENT.

Hon. S. M. Taylor of Ohio is laboring with Kentucky Senatorship.

Frankfort, March 17.—The seating of the four new Republican senators over the feeble protest of silver Democrats emphasized the fact that there is no possibility of electing Blackburn and little chance of his preventing an election, but everything still tends to the continuation of 59 silver Democrats and 17 gold Democrats who, with the Republicans who may desert Hunter, expect to elect Bradley and make the race for governor that they believe will decide the Democracy of the state.

With the Gold Democrats, it is a close race between Republicans, and the race will be for a Republican who is certainly for gold.

The Hunter people, even with the caucus nomination, 50 Republicans, the number required to elect, and two or three gold Democrats leading toward them, would still seem to have reason for confidence, but they are really scared.

Ex-Secretary of State Taylor of Ohio, who is supposed to be Hanna's agent in Hunter's behalf, stayed over a week to see the governor and accepted the latter's invitation to dine.

The conference amounted to nothing, however, for Bradley declined to have him as the work of his enemies at the suggestion of his name with any such a man.

No Danger at Vicksburg.

Greenville, Miss., March 17.—There is nothing in the river situation in the Yazoo-Mississippi delta to cause alarm. The stage of the river at Greenville is nearly six feet below the high water mark of 1892. The levees are two feet higher and properly braced, and stronger now than at any previous time.

Breaks Not Predicted.

Cape Island of Crete, March 17.—The admiral of the British fleet has not predicted the blockade of the island of Crete as decided upon by the powers. The Greek squadron, with the exception of two vessels, the Ioannina and the Two Brothers, are preparing to leave.

Power War Over.

San Francisco, March 17.—The power war is over. An agreement has been effected between the Atlantic and Pacific coast companies, and the latter will sign their agreement if the present is carried out.

Our I's and....

....Other Eyes.

Our I's are just as strong as they were fifty years ago, when we have cause to use them. But we have less and less cause to praise ourselves, since others do the praising, and we are more than willing for you to see us through other eyes. This is how we look to S. F. Boyer, wholesale and retail druggist, Duluth, Minn., who after a quarter of a century of observation writes:

"I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla for more than 25 years, both at wholesale and retail, and have never heard anything but words of praise from my customers; not a single complaint has ever reached me. I believe Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier, that has been introduced to the general public." This, from a man who has sold thousands of dozens of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is strong testimony. But it only echoes popular sentiment the world over, which, "Nothing but words of praise for Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

Any doubt about it? Send for 'Cursebook' It'll be doubts and cure doubts.

FITZ THE WINNER

the depot, will be here inside of 10 minutes.

11:30 a. m.—Mrs. Fitzsimmons has just taken a seat in one of the boxes and is greeted with hearty applause. There are quite a number of ladies present in the arena.

11:55 a. m.—One-eyed Connolly made his zig-zag way to the ring amid great uproar. In spite of efforts of two officers he succeeded in making this little speech: "Ladies and Gentlemen—I am here to challenge the winner. I am a little disfigured but still in the ring." Connolly is now on his way to the city calaboose.

11:59 a. m.—Here comes Fitz, and the crowd cheers him lustily. He is bareheaded and attired in a Japanese bath robe.

11:59 a. m.—Here comes Pompadour Jim. He was immediately greeted by wild applause.

12 o'clock m.—Behind Corbett are Chas. White, Delaney, Jeffries, McVey, Joe Corbett, Billy Wood and Al Hampton. In Fitzsimmons' corner are Martin Julian, Emerson Roebber, Stelzner and Hickey. Corbett does a little jig step in his corner. Both men are looking in finest kind of shape.

12:04 p. m.—Madden introduces the referee, and the men proceed to strip. Fitzsimmons looks light, but is a bunch of muscles. Corbett looks easily fifteen pounds heavier. The men are now donning the gloves.

12:07—Fitz refuses to shake hands. Time called.

Third round—Corbett starts right in with that hard left hook on the body. Fitz gets savage and tries his right and left at Corbett's head but does very little damage. Corbett lands another left jab on Bob's wind and follows up with right short on the ribs. Jim clinches. Corbett lands his right hard on heart. Fitz mixes up and puts the heel of his glove in Corbett's face. In the clinch Jim keeps his right working like a piston rod on Fitz's ribs. They clinch and Fitz roughs it in the breakaway. Corbett is by long odds making the cleverest fight. He is playing systematically with right and left on the body, and exchanges left at head as time is called.

Fourth round—Corbett rushing and lands left again on body. Fitz puts a stiff left on Jim's stomach. They clinch. They are fighting at a terrific rate and putting up a beautiful contest. Fitz rushes and Jim meets him with stiff right hand on stomach. Fitz is doing the rushing and hitting, and roughing it in the breakaway. Corbett is by long odds making the cleverest fight. He is playing systematically with right and left on the body, and exchanges left at head as time is called.

Fifth round—Corbett lands his left twice on Fitz's jaw. Fitz's blows have plenty of steam behind them, but are not so frequent as Corbett's. Fitz lands on Jim's neck. Jim throws a stiff half round with left on Fitz's nose, drawing first blood. They mix it and Corbett has the best of it. Corbett lands another stiff right on the body and left on the chin. This round is in favor of Corbett.

Sixth round—They clinch and Fitz tries to wrestle Corbett down. Loud cries of "Oh! oh!" Corbett lands a light left jab on the face. Fitz counters on the jaw. Corbett upper cuts. Fitz fiercely with right and has Fitz going. Fitz literally covered with blood but is fighting like a demon. Corbett is showing the signs of his fast work. Fitz is down on one knee and takes time limit. Corbett's leads are a bit wild and he misses many well intended blows, and is pushing as time is called.

exchange of no damage. Fitz misses his left swing and is lifted off his feet by a straight left jab from Corbett on the mark. Fitz is doing all the fighting this round. Fitz tries a right hand cross, but Corbett ducks. Fitz lands on Corbett's face, and Corbett counters with a right on the body. Spars for wind. Fitz tries his hard right on Corbett's head, but is countered heavily on the jaw with Corbett's good left. Fitz had the worst of this round.

Ninth round—Long range sparring. Both very active on their feet. Fitz lands below the belt, but is cautioned by Slier. Corbett lands stiff left on Fitz's wind. Fitz rushed Corbett, but does very little damage. Jim is jabbing and putting right on the breakaway. Fitz lands a very hard left hand swing on Jim's jaw and tries a right cross, but Jim is inside. Fitz again leads with right cross, but he is short. He is now landing more often than Corbett now.

Tenth round—Fitz spits blood out of mouth and tries hard left swing on Corbett's head. Fitz comes back with left and right on Jim's head and body. He is very much weaker and stronger than Corbett at this stage. Corbett stops a swing with a straight left on mouth. Fitz is bleeding rapidly but forces Corbett back, apparently being the stronger. They mix it up and honors are about even. Both are fighting hard. Fitz catches Corbett around the neck and drags him to ropes when time is called. Corbett lands light left on Fitz's mouth. Corbett's blows are lacking in force, but he is fighting very cleverly.

TOWNSHIP NOMINATIONS.

Strong Tickets Chosen by the Democracy at Their Caucuses.

SHAWNEE TOWNSHIP TICKET.

At the Democratic caucus held in Shawnee township the 13th day of March, 1897, the following candidates for township officers were nominated: viz. Paul Weisenmeyer, trustee; H. A. DeLong, treasurer; J. B. Chipman, justice of the peace; M. L. Moyer, assessor; John Brown and Frank Keiler, constables.

W. F. Blair was recommended by the caucus to the county convention as a delegate to the state convention.

SUGAR CREEK TOWNSHIP TICKET.

The Democracy of Sugar Creek township placed in nomination last Saturday the following strong township ticket:

For trustee, J. M. Sheek; for treasurer, Dr. R. E. Jones; for assessor, E. W. Williams; for constables, John Huffer and Edwin M. Davis.

AUGLAIZE TOWNSHIP'S TICKET.

Trustee, Mark Guyton; treasurer, Edward Blair; assessor, east precinct, Henry Patterson; west precinct, W. F. Blair; justice of the peace, O. W. Wiswell; constables, Stephen Dotson and Geo. B. Hefner; road supervisors, 1st district, Thomas Logan; 2d district, John Sweeney; 3d district, John A. Grubb; 4th district, John Blair, Sr.

PERRY'S NOMINATIONS.

The Democracy of Perry township met at the township house Saturday last and nominated the following ticket:

Trustee, D. L. Ridener; treasurer, T. S. Apple; assessor, Christopher Graham; constable, J. K. Grafton; advisory committeeman, J. A. Jacobs, Sr.; district delegates, L. M. Baker, Christy Ebing.

The movement to elect county delegates was overruled and it was decided to attend the county convention in mass. The following resolution was then adopted: Resolved, That we, the Democrats of Perry township, in convention assembled, endorse the platform adopted at the National Democratic Convention at Chicago, and that we heartily endorse the patriotic actions of Wm. J. Bryan in the presidential campaign of 1896.

C. O. APPLE, Secy.

OVERRULED.

Was the Motion to Quash the Indictment Against Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Lacy.

Mr. Eastman, attorney for Jane Lacy and Mrs. Wade, who were indicted at the November term of court for stealing and receiving and concealing stolen goods, argued a motion this morning before Judge Richle to quash the indictment. He argued that the indictment was an illegal one in that two causes are included both in the first and second act. He insisted that the two indictments were improperly joined. The indictment held them on the charges of receiving and concealing stolen property.

Eighth round—Fitz forcing it. An

You must know there is a big loss of power from your belts slipping. Well, we can stop that and so can you. If you will use GREEN SEAL BELT DRESSING on your belts.

Read what these drillers say.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 20, '97.

Your Dressing is just the thing; it covers wear on machinery, and with it we can run belt that would tear in two if we had to make it tight enough to hold without the Dressing. It is not a good thing for belt manufacturers, but it is a "Daisy" for the users of belts. Besides we have no slipping now.

ABIG CONTRACT

Undertaken Quietly and as Quietly Completed by a Local Printer.

It must have often struck Mr. C. W. Miles, Printer, of No. 130 west Kirby street, as he stood at his ease "sticking" type or "distilling" what frantic efforts proprietary medicine firms make to get their preparations on the market. The Anglo-Saxon language, rich as it is in adjectives, is exhausted in the attempts to place prominently before the public the alleged merits of the remedies, and if a cure by accident is made in some corner of the Union, every daily and weekly paper is adorned with special cuts, special notices and special advertising.

If Mr. Miles were to take the trouble to look at the notices appearing in the Lima papers, he would find every one of the series published by Doan's Kidney Pills a short history of a local citizen. Just see if any other remedy attempts such a method to produce such irresistible proof of the representation made about it. Read the proof supplied by Mr. Miles and see how he accomplish'd a big contract: "It was my first experience with depressing backache and soreness across the kidneys. While I was suffering from the trouble in my back I had dizziness in my head and frequent inclinations to urinate, attended with burning or smarting, and there was a deposit like brick dust. This weakened my back, and thinking that Doan's Kidney Pills might help me, I got a box at W. M. Melville's drug store, No. 147 north Main street. I had taken but a few doses of them when the urinary difficulty vanished. A little later the whole trouble was a thing of the past, and I have no symptoms of kidney complaint remaining. I consider them a genuine remedy for troubles of this kind, and from my own experience I can heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

A CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT

Will cause the greatest sacrifice sale of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods ever known in the city of Lima.

Mr. Maurice Hofeller, the New Manager of the Mammoth Store.

Has completed a careful inventory of the stock, and came to the conclusion that $25,000 WORTH OF GOODS MUST BE CLOSED OUT, no matter how great the sacrifice. Mr. Hofeller's policy is to avoid carrying goods over from season to season. He has purchased a new stock. There is now $25,000 worth of medium and Heavy Weight Men's and Boys' Clothing, Furnishing Goods and Hats still on the tables and in the show cases. These goods are all up to date and it is better to sell them than keep them over. That is exactly what will be done.

To-Day we Throw the Doors Wide Open to the People!

And let men buy for the remainder of this season and the next at prices that never have and never will be paralleled in the city of Lima—Prices that come pretty close to GIVING THE GOODS AWAY.

Men's Furnishings.

Vote to-morrow.

Vote early to-morrow on the bond question.

Special election on the bonding question to-morrow.

Every voter in Lima should deposit his ballot on the bond issue question to-morrow.

Do not miscalculate the importance of to-morrow's special election on the bond issue question.

The question, "Shall Lima issue $98,000 in bonds for railroad shop purposes?" will be determined to-morrow at the ballot box. Let every voter in the corporation register his vote upon this important question.

As you go to your work to-morrow stop at the polls in your precinct and record your vote on the very important question of issuing $98,000 in bonds for railroad shops. No man interested in Lima's future should overlook this matter.

Lima's opportunity to secure another railroad shop is here, and to-morrow's election will determine whether or not she secures this very desirable institution. Do not neglect going to the polls and registering your vote upon this subject.

Do not forget the special election to-morrow on the question of issuing $98,000 bonds. Deposit your ballot early.

You will not do your duty as a citizen if you fail to go to the polls to-morrow and vote on the question of the bond issue.

To-morrow from 5:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m., the polls will be open for voting on the railroad shop bond question. Do not fail to vote.

It is important that a large vote be polled to-morrow on the very important question of the issuance of $98,000 of bonds for railroad shop building purposes.

By a letter of the comptroller of the treasury it seems 26 national banks failed from November 3d to February 1st, 1897, that is, in little less than three months. The aggregate capital of these banks was over $94,000,000 and their deposits over $20,000,000.

From Washington comes the very probable report that many nominations for important offices will be hung up by President McKinley until after the passage of the new tariff bill. There is nothing equal to the "pig counter" to bring obstreperous congressmen to terms.

ESTIMATES AND REVENUES

The total imports of wool in 1896 were 231,000,000 pounds. According to the bureau of statistics the wool produced in this country in 1896 amounted to 272,474,000 pounds of unscoured wool. It is noticeable that we produce and import nearly the same quantity of wool. The present tariff admits all kinds of raw wool free of duty and it is thought the new duty will be 11 cents a pound or 70 per cent or so.

Senator Foraker is opposed to the plan of making no general distribution of offices until after the tariff bill becomes a law. Rumor has it that he told the president so yesterday. Mr. Foraker thinks the "hour glass and the men in blue" as

Mr. Quay calls them, expected their reward soon after Mr. McKinley became president and that they should not be disappointed—Washington Post.

Vote on the shop question to-morrow.

Get out your carriages and take to the polls to-morrow every man who is entitled to a vote on the shop question.

There is no property qualification for the privilege of voting on the shop question. It is the right of every voter in the corporation to cast his ballot on the subject which means so much for Lima.

Take your neighbor to the polls to-morrow and see that he votes on the bond issue question.

Between the hours of 5:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. to-morrow will be held the election on the bond question. Do not fail to vote.

Nothing is more important to a town than manufactures, and no manufacturers are more beneficial or more permanent than railroad shops. Upon the result of to-morrow's vote depends the question of the location in Lima of the Lima Northern shops. Let every voter in the corporation go to the polls and cast his vote on this most momentous question.

Mr. Dingley and his Republican associates of the Ways and Means Committee should treat the public with some degree of fairness in their estimate of revenue under the new tariff bill. They have authorized a statement that the increase will amount to $6,000,000 a year, and in this they estimate the increase from sugar at $20,000,000. Upon last year's importation of sugar the increase of revenue from this source would be not less than $2,000,000 at the rate fixed in the bill.

But the calculation of $11,000,000 of revenue from raw wool is grossly absurd. This amount of revenue is based upon the estimate that the imports of wool would be as large in volume under the higher as rates of duty proposed by the committee as they are now. Upon a large quantity of fine wool, now freely imported the rates of duty under the bill would be practically prohibitory, as was the case under the McKinley tariff. Upon what reasonable theory, then, do Mr. Dingley and his associates estimate such an amount of revenue from wool when the rates would be raised so high as to arrest importations. Or how do they imagine that the woolen manufacturers of the United States could afford to pay $11,000,000 in annual duties on wool and yet hold their own in competition with the manufacturers of England, France and Germany, who pay no duties on raw materials?

Almost as extravagant is the estimate of an increase of $14,000,000 in revenues from importations of woolen goods. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1895, the total value of imports of woolens was $16,913,737, upon which the duties collected were $36,404,797. In the last two calendar years the average imports of woolens amounted to $15,709,347 in value, upon which the average annual revenue was nearly $24,000,000 under a duty of not quite 50 per cent. The decline in revenue from woolens under the present tariff was almost $12,000,000. In order to obtain an increase of $14,000,000 from this schedule under the new tariff it is assumed that the volume of imports will be as great as it is now, when the duties are not more than half as high as the proposed rates. The avowed object of the exorbitant McKinley duties on woolens was to check importations, and the object was accomplished. It is assumed now that by restoring the McKinley duties on woolens the volume of imports will be maintained and the revenues from this source nearly doubled.

The estimates of an increase of $7,000,000 of revenue from "sundries" of $5,000,000 from silk, cotton goods, lac and jute, or $1,000,000 from chemicals, or $2,000,000 in tobacco and $1,000,000 from spirits, have no reasonable basis. On the contrary, the increase of protective duties is the design of protective tariffs, but the authors of this bill propose to raise the rates of protective duties to check imports and at the same time base upon this an increase of revenues.

In plain truth, the only sure and substantial increase of revenues provided for in the entire bill is in the duties on sugar. The committee purpose under estimates the revenues from sugar from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000 in order to swell the fictitious revenues from increased protective duties upon dwindling imports. They borrow and enlarge the sugar schedule of the present tariff for the purpose of obtaining needed revenue, and in nearly all the rest of the bill they have sacrificed considerations of public revenue to the insatiate private greed for tariff spots. In consequence, their estimates of revenues are as false as the principles upon which their bill is founded—Philadelphia Record.

A Novel Ride in Payment of an Election Bet

From New York to San Francisco on a Donkey's Back

R. Pitcher Woodward, who is under promise to ride from Brooklyn, N. Y., to San Francisco, Cal., on a donkey's back, by reason of William Jennings Bryan's defeat, is due in Lima at 5 o'clock to-day.

Mr. Woodward regrets that he was so foolish as to make such a bet, but prefers to make the trip, if the donkey holds out, to paying the $5,000 he wagered on Bryan's election. He will lecture at the assembly room to-night under the auspices of the Bimetallic League.

Tall Oaks From Little Acorns Grow.

On the 20th of the month, a small sprout on its mother's stem, it cast off its leaves and led on a path to the sun, to begin its existence.

It grows for many months, but familiar to all, and yet the little acorn may develop into a giant tree.

The baby may become a second Napoleon.

The cut, awkward and ungainly, may develop to be the most graceful and swiftest king of the turf.

How to treat a wound.

Three useful things to have in a farmer's home as a provision in case of wounds not sufficiently serious to necessitate the calling in of the medical attendant are a spool of adhesive plaster, some iodofrom gauze and a package of carbolated absorbent cotton. Cleanse and dry as nearly as may be the cut surface with a wad of the cotton, using moderate pressure and elevating the part if necessary to check the flow of blood. Do not apply any water. Bring the cut surface together as accurately as possible and retain them there with as few and as narrow strips of the plaster as will suffice, cutting them of a good length. Then cover the wound with a dozen or so thicknesses of the iodofrom gauze, which should extend an inch beyond the wound. Over the gauze apply a liberal layer of the absorbent cotton, allowing it to extend beyond the gauze. The cotton may be kept in place by a bandage of chrysanthemum, or a part of a leg of a stocking may be drawn over it. Moderate pressure, if evenly distributed, is helpful. The pressure of a string is hurtful. Keep the part moderately elevated and take care that there is no constriction of the limb above the wound by a garter.—Exchange.

Goodwin and the Duke.

One evening after the performance Nat C. Goodwin went to a restaurant for a late "bite." At the table adjoining the one where the actor sat with a couple of friends was a small group of first row youths. One of these young men had met Nat Goodwin somewhere, for a minute. He wanted to show to his friends that he was acquainted with a real actor. Accordingly he brought up some topic relating to theatrical matters and made statement which some other Prominent Citizen, Jr., disputed.

"Well, now, I'll leave it to Goodwin," said the young man who had met Nat Goodwin—somewhere, for a minute. So he turned around and called out rather loudly: "Oh, Goodwin! I say, Goodwin, come over here a minute, will you?" The actor was startled for a moment, and then he arose. He took hold of the back of his chair, and, with all the artistic dignity at his command, he said, looking coldly at the young man, "Call me either Nat or Mr. Goodwin, if you please." Then he seated himself.—San Francisco Argonaut.

"Why weren't you at the banquet last night? We had a great time."

"Hadn't a dress suit."

"What has become of the one you used to have?"

"The fact is I never had one. A fellow who lived out at Short Hills, where I did, used to lend me his."

"And he was using it?"

"Well, yes. The son of a gun died about a month ago, and they buried him in it. I wanted awfully to be with you, but I didn't think it would look well if I dug him up."—Truth.

Avoid An Early Grave.

How often do we hear, that the average to an early grave was opened by neglecting a slight cough and cold. Profit by this truth, and provide yourself with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which instantly cures all throat and lung afflictions. Mr. W. H. Mahoney, Lowell, Mass., writes: "I was taken sick with a bad cold. The doctor did not seem to help me, and everybody said I was getting consumption, when a relative recommended Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. I got a bottle and it helped me, and after taking two bottles I was cured to the surprise of everybody. I shall always recommend it to my friends as I know it to be a sure cure." Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is sold everywhere for 25 cents. Don't accept a substitute.

Pneumonia Cured.

Mrs. A. J. Lawrence, of Beaver, Pa., says: "Brazilian Balm brought me out of a severe attack of pneumonia in splendid shape. It is a wonderful remedy for cough and lung troubles. Also, for outward use, for burns, cold-sores, and chapped hands and face, it cures like magic. It is invaluable in the family."

THE NEXT SENATE.

How It Will Probably Stand as Regards Tariff and Finance.

It is worth while to try to show how the Senate is likely to stand with reference to the various general questions in which the two parties are interested. As far as possible, it is to be noted that the Senate will have a straight Repub. line to follow. The 44 straight Republicans, 1 silver D., 10 W. M. D., 10 Louisianians, 2 silver C. S., 10 S. C. Republicans, 1 Unionist, and 12 of Montana and perhaps 3 or 4 S. C. Democrats and independent. On the question of protection, therefore, the Senate is likely to stand:

For a 10 cent tariff, 36 against a protective tariff, 40.

On the question of the free coinage of silver, standing alone and not in conjunction with a protective tariff or any other Repub. policy, it is believed the following forces will consist of the following: Forty of the 44 straight Republicans and the 6 anti-silver Democrats, dividing the Senate as to silver on substantially these lines:

Against free coinage of silver, 40; for free coinage of silver, 44.

If the Republicans gain possession of the organization of the Senate, as they are pretty sure to do before the regular session of Congress, it will be found exceedingly difficult to get a free coinage bill before the Senate, except as rider to some important measure, which will give the moderate silver Republicans an opportunity to vote with their party and against an effort to pass a needless and ineffective silver proclamation.—Walter Wellman in Chicago Times-Herald.

LINCOLN AND BLONDIN.

The Great President's Apt Reply to a Delegation of Politicians.

The death of Blondin, the tight rope walker, closed a career that was sensational during 65 of its 70 years, and although his daringfeat at Niagara was the one with which his name was always associated in this country it was by no means his most difficult exhibition. Apparently the only limit to his sensational feats on a rope was fixed by public opinion, and more than one effort was made to restrain him. He inspired more political cartoons in this country during the time that he was courageous here than any other man not a politician. Abraham Lincoln once gave a very pointed answer to a delegation that waited on him for the purpose of pointing out the shortcomings of his administration when he said:

"Gentlemen, suppose all the property you were worth was in gold, and you had to put it into the hands of Blondin to carry across Niagara falls on a rope, would you shake the cable or keep shouting out to him: 'Blondin, stand up a little straighter! Blondin, stoop a little more; go a little faster; lean more to the south!' No. You would hold your breath as well as your tongue and keep your hands off until he was safe over."

Blondin was the hero of the hour after his sensational feats at Niagara, and when he appeared in this city no champion prizefighter was ever followed by such crowds.—New York Sun.

FRENCH ARMY AND NAVY.

England's Traditional Enemy Not Behind Her in Armament.

The French navy ranks next to that of England in numbers, while in efficiency and fighting qualities the French ships are rarely equal to their English rivals. In fact, in naval warfare the French early took the lead, and many of the English types of ships were modeled after the French design, says The Chautauquan. One of the chief differences between the English and the French armored ships today is in the disposition of the armor and the consequent design of the hull. English designers have striven to protect the men working the guns, and to do this they have reduced the length of the ship's armor. French naval architects, on the other hand, have given little attention to the protection of men and a great deal to the protection of the water line. Therefore they have reduced the breadth of the ship's armor.

It is worthy of note that France is the only great power which levies a tax on such of her citizens as either do not enlist in the standing army or who enlist for a shorter term than three years. Only those who are officially declared "impotentes" are exempt from such a tax. It is payable annually as long as the liability to service lasts, and the revenue from this source amounts to about 30,000,000 francs, or $6,000,000, annually.

The officers of the French army receive a very thorough education at the different military schools. At the head of these (although not exclusively military) stands the Polytechnic school in Paris, which admits 150 pupils annually after a competitive examination. The course occupies nine months in the year for two years.

As it is impossible to keep under arms for three years the entire annual contingent of recruits, the law provides for the discharge of the recruits to be drawn at the end of the first or second year of active service in such proportion as to bring down the peace strength of the army to the number annually to be recruited by the general staff. The differences in this proportion are decided by lot. For this purpose every recruit at his one year's draw is numbered, and only the selected by the highest numbers are entitled to consideration.

The Cure of Boils.

When we were children we were taught that it was next door to a crime to destroy boils, or to destroy them, but not as expensive or as hard to get now as they were a quarter of a century ago, but all the same, after a long time, it is very hard to waste or take care.

Cathartics should be tried to have to take care of boils, and everybody is to be permitted to do over them them about or tear them in pieces. They state:

should be encouraged to accumulate volumes, and to do this must have a place in which to keep them. Good plain books are best, but with any very nice old ones, as well.

There is something that ought to be tacked up in every grocery! It's on a signboard over a large New York store in Broadway, where they don't believe that "substitution" pays. And nobody does believe it, except shifty and short-sighted store-keepers. When a woman wants Pearline, for instance, she won't be satisfied to have some inferior washing-powder in its place. It and a fraud on Pearline. You can help to put a stop to it. When you ask for Pearline, don't let any imitation of it be substituted for it.

SOME PEOPLE SAY

That the clothes worn by our great grandfathers in the latter end of the last century were more graceful than the kind worn now.

WE DISPUTE THIS.

We claim that we measure clothes which fit as well and look as handsome as the costumes of the 18th century, and our clothes have the advantage of a far greater utility.

Compare the pictures above and choose the one you prefer. We are sure that it will be the tailor-dressed man of to-day.

The meeting at West Lima Mission Church is increasing in interest and a great revival is looked for.

Miss Martha Wilcox and daughter, Miss Vina, of Dunkirk, are new patients at the Myers hospital, receiving treatment from Dr F G Stueber, the eye specialist.

The entertainment to be given in the opera house this evening by the children of St. Rose school, promises to be a great success. Nearly every seat in the house has been taken.

Fireman Fred Smith, of the C. H. & D., is the proudest man on the road, and he has reason to be, for a charming little daughter has arrived to bless his home on north Jackson street.

John Barrick, driver for Newson, Deakin & Co, who underwent an operation at the Myers hospital a few weeks ago, under the surgery of Dr. Bee of this city, and Dr. Scudder, of Hope Hospital, Fort Wayne, is rapidly recovering.

A very pleasant surprise was given Miss Nora Atmar Tuesday evening at her home on Tingle avenue, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The evening was most enoyably spent in cards and music, after which an elegant repast was served.

The prospects of news from the Corbett-Fitzsimmons mill brought out the local sports early after the noon hour to-day, and at the Elk, where proprietor Ackerman had a wire and telegraph instrument connected and a competent operator in charge, standing room was down to inches long before bulletins began to arrive. Before returns, betting became quite lively.

The big fight was scheduled to begin as soon as possible after 10 o'clock at Carson City, which would be about 12 o'clock local time. The first message from the scene of the prospective battle this morning announced that the weather and all other conditions were unusually favorable. The first bulletins began to arrive here about 2 o'clock this afternoon, and the following were those of great interest received.

CARSON CITY, NEV., March 17.—10:40 a.m.—All the notable sports of the continent are gathered together to see the battle of the century. John L. Sullivan has just appeared resplendent in a shining silk tunic. The noblest roman of them all is greeted with tumult cheering. Here comes the Caesar of the day, George Siler, upon the turning of whose thumb depends the fate of the modern gladiators. It is stated that Corbett and Fitz will be in the ring before 11 or 11:30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Billy Madden announces from the ring that after the Corbett-Fitzsimmons "go" the arena will be cleared, and at 3 o'clock the double event—Green vs Smith and Flaherty vs Hawkins—will take place.

Governor Sadler, "the fighting governor of Nevada," has just entered his box.

Loud applause. Al Houseman is being called on for a few remarks, but briefly says "cheer up."

The crowd persistently yell for "Sullivan, Sullivan." But John L. merely raises that sleek hat.

"Jemmy" Wakely and Al Smith are said to strongly favor Corbett's chances.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY!

Corbett and Fitzsimmons, or More Railroad Shops for Lima?

That is the question! Will you be as enthusiastic tomorrow over the acquisition of the Lima Northern shop as you are to day about the deciding of a prize fight?

Do you realize that upon your vote to-morrow (Thursday, March 18th) rests the question as to whether that lot of yours rises in value or not; whether that store of yours has more customers in the future and shows a bigger profit at the end of the year or not; whether that boarding house of yours has more mouths to fill or not; in short, no matter what your business is, have you reflected that the decision of to-morrow will affect your pocket, either directly or indirectly?

This is the last reminder that can be given to you in these columns. Cut this out, therefore, and pass it around among your neighbors and customers. Get them "enthused" but, above all, get them to the polls to-morrow to register their vote.

Had Been Ill Five Months—Death Resulted from a Cancer—Funeral Friday

Mrs. Susan Baker, wife of William H. Baker, of 228 west Vine street, died at 9 o'clock last evening, her death resulting from a cancer, from which she had suffered an illness of five months duration.

The deceased was born in Franklin county, Pa., May 10th, 1831, and was in her sixty-third year. Her husband, William H. Baker, and one son, William M. Baker, survive her.

The funeral services will be held from the residence at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, and the remains will be interred in Woodlawn cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. Swanson, of the Congregational church, who will be assisted by Rev. Miller.

Archie Williams and Daniel Kief Acquited of Attempted Burglary.

Archie Williams and Daniel Kief, who were on trial yesterday, charged with having attempted to burglarize the Keville grocery, located on the corner of Union and Wayne streets, were acquitted last evening.

The jury was out only a short time when they returned a verdict which allowed the prisoners to go free. The verdict was a surprise to all who were in any way connected with the case or who heard the evidence.

COLORED MAN

From Paulding Being Tried To-day on a Charge of Forgery

The court room is crowded to day with a large number of citizens from Paulding county. They are here in the interest of Martin Manuel, a colored man, who is being tried on the charge of forging and of passing a forged check upon the Commercial Bank at Delphos. The check called for $25. The defendant sets up the plea that he did not forge it, as he is unable to either read or write. The trial, however, will be made on the passing of the forged instrument. Most of the witnesses for the defense are colored people from Paulding co., and will not be finished before to-morrow or the next day.
